- 1) Halloween is a holiday that's celebrated in America on 31 October of each year, regardless of what day of the week this date falls on. Although it is rooted in religion, Halloween today is enjoyed mainly because of its decorations, costumes, candy, treats, and general excitement, and furthermore, it is enjoyed by most everyone.

- 2) Following winter, spring begins on 20 March and ends on either 20 June or 21 June, in the United States (this date may vary slightly from year to year and hemisphere to hemisphere). - 4) Dame Agatha Mary Clarissa Christie was a British crime writer of novels, short stories, and plays. She is best remembered for the 66 detective novels and more than 15 short story collections she wrote under her own name, most of which revolve around the investigations of such characters as Hercule Poirot, Miss Jane Marple.

- 5) Last summer my family and I went to Alberobello, a village in the region of Puglia in southern Italy. It is an uncommon and picturesque destination which has been made a UNESCO World Heritage site for its unusual districts of trulli. A trullo is a small dwelling, usually round, built from the local limestone, with dry-stone walls and a characteristic conical roof.
